The following text summarizes the commitment made by the Government of Australia at the London Summit on Family Planning on July 11, 2012.

FINANCIAL COMMITMENTS

Australia commits to spending an additional AUD 58 million over five years on family planning, doubling annual contributions to AUD 53 million by 2016. This commitment will form a part of Australia’s broader investments in maternal, reproductive, and child health (at least AUD 1.6 billion over five years to 2015).
